

Guadalupe

Our brother John, (Carl Benedict) died suddenly last Saturday, the 23rd. Just the way he would want to go, with his boots on (literally) mowing the grass by the guest house. He was a true monk who loved manual labor and was extremely faithful to his prayer.